MINUTES OF THE WOMAN'S MISSIONARY UNION OF SUNFLOWER COUNTY BAPTIST ASSOCIATION

The Sunflower County W. M. U. held its annual meeting in Inverness, on Oct. 15th, 1925. The day was dismal and only 41 ladies registered.

Mrs. T. H. Fisackerly, the Superintendent, called the meeting to order and we stood and sang, "We Praise Thee, O God."

Mrs. D. M. Brown of Indianola, led the devotional, reading the 11th Chapter of Hebrews and some other verses on "Faith.

Mrs. Jim Pratt gave us a hearty welcome and Mrs. H. L. Martin responded.

The following officers gave their reports: Young Peoples' Leader, Mrs. S. E. Buchanan; Superintendent, Mrs. T. H. Fisackerly; Personal Service Leader, Mrs. J. E. Watts; Stewardship Leader, Mrs. S. E. Shelton; Mission Study Leader, Mrs. Sullivan, sent no report.

Mrs. Doughty explained Organized Personal Service. We were then favored with a special song, "The Silent Voice," by Miss Christine Gilmer, of Indianola.

Eight Societies answered to Roll Call with good reports. We have added three new Societies to our list.

The following committees were appointed:

NOMINATION: Mrs. H. L. Martin, Mrs. Parks and Mrs. Jim Pratt.

RESOLUTIONS: Mrs. T. K. Arnold, Mrs. D. F. Brown and Mrs. E. F. Mullen.

OBITUARY: Mrs. S. E. Buchanan, Mrs. McEachern and Mrs. W. P. Gresham.

Minutes of last meeting were read and accepted by changing Zone Leader. Mrs. Sullivan having resigned, Mrs. G. A. Jarman was elected to take her place.

Mrs. Doughty gave a very impressive talk on "The 1925 Program, after which she led in prayer.

After a very pleasant social hour of mingling with our friends, and a most delicious lunch served in the church, we assembled for the afternoon session, singing, "Faith is the Victory." Mrs. Albert Campbell, of Moorhead, led the devotional, reading several verses from the 5th Chapter of Matthew.

Miss Mamye Slaughter made a very interesting talk on "The Rural Churches," and urged us to get 20 new Societies and 20 revived Societies, our quota being forty.

Mrs. T. K. Arnold of Moorhead, sang in her usual sweet way, "Rock of Ages."

Miss Fancher made an interesting talk on "Young Peoples' Work."

The Standard of Excellence was read and it was moved, seconded and carried that it be adopted by the Association.

The Motion was made, seconded and carried that the new Superintendent get name of Missionary and prepare to send box.

Mrs. Doughty asked that White Cross money be sent to Miss Lackey. We then sang, "Revive Us Again."

The committees reported as follows:

OBITUARY—We pause in our onward march to bow to the will of our Father in taking from our midst some of our valued members, whose influence lingers with us.

Mrs. W. J. Toler, Mrs. M. Keyton, Mrs. Croukshank, Inverness
Mrs. John Taylor, Sunflower
Mrs. S. E. Carter, Indianola

But the Heavenly Father doeth all things well.

YOUR COMMITTEE

RESOLUTIONS—Be it Resolved that we extend to the Ladies of the Inverness Baptist Church our sincere appreciation for their hearty welcome, and preparations made for our coming, especially the wholesome and delicious lunch.

That we express our gratitude to all who helped make the program the inspiring one that it was. We thank Mesdames Doughty and Slaughter and Miss Fancher for coming to us with their heart messages.

We offer our thanks to Mrs. Fisackerly for her untiring efforts for the Association.

Respectfully submitted,
YOUR COMMITTEE

NOMINATIONS: The following nominations were made:
Superintendent—Mrs. D. F. Brown, Indianola.
Assistant—Mrs. Geo. S. Jarman, Ruleville.
Secretary—Mrs. J. C. Dailey, Indianola.
Mission Study—Mrs. T. H. Fisackerly, Inverness.
Personal Service—Mrs. D. H. S. Cox, Doddsville.
Young Peoples' Leader—Mrs. G. C. Gates, Doddsville.
Stewardship Leader—Mrs. J. W. Parks, Drew.

Mrs. J. W. Parks invited the next rally to meet there. We were then dismissed with a prayer by Rev. Mr. Wooten, pastor at Inverness.

CONSTITUTION

SUNFLOWER BAPTIST ASSOCIATION

ARTICLE 1. This Association shall be called the Sunflower Association and shall consist of churches of the Baptist Denomination in regular standing.

ARTICLE 2. The bounds of this Association will be Sunflower County, Mississippi.

ARTICLE 3. The object of this Association shall be to digest and organize an operative system of measures to promote the general interest of the Redeemer's Kingdom.

ARTICLE 4. The Association shall be composed of messengers from Baptist Churches within its own bounds, who shall be members in good standing in the churches which they represent. The ratio of representation shall be six for each church, and one additional messenger for every fifty over one hundred members. Visiting messengers connected with the Baptist Denomination may be received by a vote of the Association. Such messengers shall be entitled to all the privileges of the Association, except that of voting, provided that said messengers are members of a Baptist Church in good standing.

ARTICLE 5. Churches of same faith and order with this body may be admitted to membership in this Association by signifying their desire by letter and messengers.

ARTICLE 6. The officers of the Association shall consist of a Moderator, Clerk and Treasurer, to be selected by a majority of the messengers present at each session. These officers, together with five other members appointed by the Moderator, one from each Supervisors District shall form an executive committee, four of whom shall constitute a quorum, who shall attend to all business between the sittings of the Association. Officers shall be elected at the beginning of each Associational meeting.

ARTICLE 7. The Association shall never possess a single attribute of power or authority over any church. It absolutely and forever disclaims any right of this kind, hereby avowing the cardinal principle that every church is sovereign and independent. Yet it shall have power to withdraw fellowship from any church known to be in disorder, or that fails to represent itself at three consecutive meetings of the Association.

ARTICLE 8. The Moderator shall preside over the meetings of the Association. He shall appoint all committees, unless otherwise provided and may vote in case of a tie.

ARTICLE 9. The Moderator shall not be eligible to hold office but two years in succession, but after the expiration of one year, he will again be eligible.

ARTICLE 10. The Clerk shall keep a true record of all the proceedings of the Association and be responsible for all articles and documents committed to his care.

ARTICLE 11. The Treasurer shall take charge of all moneys, specialties and properties belonging to the Association, and keep an authentic record of all receipts and disbursements of the Association's funds, specifying particularly to what object donations are applied; and shall make a full exhibit of the same at each annual meeting of the Association.

ARTICLE 12. The annual meeting of this Association shall be held at such time and place as the Association may from time to time determine. The executive committee may change the time and place of annual meetings of the Association.

ARTICLE 13. The Association shall have the power at its annual meetings to make such alterations of, and additions to, this constitution, as experience shall dictate, by a majority of two-thirds of the members present. Provided: That the seventh article be scrupulously observed, and that notice be given of the contemplated alterations a year previously.

ARTICLE 14. All pastors serving churches within the bounds of the Association shall be counted as members of this body and given all the privileges of regular messengers.

RULES OF DECORUM

1. The Association shall be opened with prayer.

2. The Moderator, Clerk and Treasurer shall be chosen by the messengers present, by private vote.

3. The Moderator shall be considered a judge of order, but any member not satisfied with his decision may appeal, provided the appeal be made on the same day.

4. The Moderator shall be entitled to the same privilege of speaking as other members, but shall not vote unless his vote is necessary to decide the question. If he arises to speak, he shall call on some brother to take the chair.

5. All questions brought before the Association shall be introduced by motion and if seconded, shall be opened for discussion, unless withdrawn by the mover and his second. When a subject has been taken up and a reasonable time allowed for its discussion, the Moderator shall take the question by yeas and nays, and if a call for division be made, it shall be decided by the members rising.

6. Any member desiring to speak shall arise and address the Moderator. Only one member will be allowed to speak at a time, and he shall not be interupted while speaking unless he departs from the subject or makes personal reflections.

7. No person shall speak more than once upon the same subject unless all who wish to speak have had an opportunity, nor more than twice upon any subject without permission.

8. Every subject introduced for discussion shall be first deided before another is offered, unless it be laid over by motion, with the consent of the mover and the Association.

9. The Association in all cases shall be governed by a majority of the members present, except in the reception of churches, when a unanimous vote shall be required; but in no case shall one member or church prevent the reception of a church without sufficient cause shown, which shall be determined by a majority.

10. The names of members shall be called, whenever the Association directs and absentees marked. Any member wishing to retire shall obtain permission of the Moderator.

11. These rules may be suspended for the time being by a vote of the Association.

12. Any member violating these rules shall be subject to reproval by the Moderator, but only on the breach which shall have been made.

13. Amendments and alterations may be made to these rules when a majority may deem it necessary.
